Long Acres Alpaca Farm

Highlights to include the 2nd Annual Alpaca Clothing Fashion Show and Custom Alpaca Yarn and Roving Dying!

On September 26 and 27, Long Acres Alpaca Farm will once again celebrate National Alpaca Farm Day. Last year's annual event featured an alpaca clothing fashion show and this year will be a repeat with two new clothing lines added to the show and available for purchase. We're pleased to offer Beyond Threads women's clothing, a classic but contemporary line of women's clothing, and Latitude 15, extreme alpaca wear in unisex sizing. Both of these in addition to our regular line of alpaca items. The Fashion Show will be on Sunday, September 27th at 12:30.

Once again we will offer our beautiful yarns and rovings for sale. New this year will be our custom yarn and roving dying stations. No experience necessary. You can purchase your yarn or roving and we'll teach you how to hand dye a one of a kind creation. You'll be able to put your artistic talents to the test!
